

Reward System Ideas

Solar Sytem: Once the group has filled the “Milky Way” with stars a class celebration takes place.

Pom Pom Jar: Fill a pom-pom jar and the class will earn different themed days.

Snowman: Children can earn a piece of the snowman to make him complete

Fish: Create a large fishbowl; children earn the fish to fill the tank. Alternative: Add fish to an ocean scene.

Beehive: Class beehive. As a class, everyone will earn bees to put on the beehive. When hive is full there is a reward

Tickets: A small container is filled with tickets until it is full

Treasure Chest: Kindness coins are used to fill a treasure chest to earn a group reward

Tickets: as a group children earn tickets which are placed on a 8x10 paper until the paper is full

Paper Chain: We will be earning links to a paper chain. When the chain reaches a predetermined length, the class will earn a special day

Caterpillar: Use circles or segments to create a long caterpillar. Use a butterfly/chrysalis to mark the end point.

Crayon box: Fill a large crayon box with crayons.

Piggy bank: fill large piggy bank with coins.

Tree: This can be for any season. Add leaves, apples, snowflakes, blossoms to create a seasonal display.

Teddy Bear Picnic: Create a picnic area and have a line of bears marching to the picnic area.

Foot Prints: Create an image of reward and have foot prints toward the goal.

Watermelon: Add seeds to large slice of watermelon.

Flowers: Add blooms to stems of flowers. Add petals to daisy style flowers.

Hour glass: Move gems from top of hour glass to fill the bottom.

Bugs: Have ants marching towards picnic blanket.

Pumpkin patch: Add pumpkins to vines or pumpkin flowers.

Snow: Cover ground of scene with snowflakes.

Hatching eggs: Put chicks in eggs to have them “hatch”.

Car race: Move a car around the room to the finish line.

Caps for Sale: Add caps to the man’s head until they reach the ceiling
