

Tucker's Take Home Tasks

(Social and Emotional Skill Building for School Readiness)

Routines are important to your child. When things are predictable, your child will feel safe, secure, confident and in control of his world. He knows that, for example, bath comes first, then books, then songs and then bedtime. If day-to-day events seem to occur randomly, it can cause children a lot of anxiety.

Together with your child, make a daily routine chart. You can use the pictures below, or create some of your own.
